

Story City Community Recreation Center

826 Elm Avenue
Story City, IA
50248
515-733-2458

Rules

The following list of rules applies to all patrons of the Story City Community Recreation Center. The Story City Community Recreation Center Staff reserves the right to remove from the facility any patron who has broken any of these rules. Management reserves the right to suspend or revoke the membership of a patron who repeatedly disregards the stated rules.

- NO KICKING BALLS
- No fighting or foul language. We are a family facility and this behavior will NOT be tolerated.
- No rollerblades, or skates of any kind are allowed in the gym or on the track.
- No softballs, baseballs or bats allowed
- Dodgeball and football (no kicking) only allowed with permission from staff
- No street shoes are allowed on the courts or track.
- No black-soled shoes are allowed.
- No dunking or hanging from basketball rims.
- No hanging or climbing on the curtain or any other equipment.
- No throwing or kicking balls at the curtain.
- No sitting on bleachers unless they are fully pulled out.
- Keep all balls and equipment in the gym.
- No bouncing balls in the hallway.
- Balls and equipment are not allowed on the walking track.
- Place all equipment back in proper storage place.
- No standing in lanes or blocking traffic on walking track.
- No unaccompanied children on the track during recreation center activities. This includes using the lanes to watch activities on the gym floor.
- No food or drink other than water will be allowed in the gym and on the track.
- Patrons must be 10 years of age or older to use the gym and 12 years or older to use the track without the supervision of a parent or guardian.
- Children 9 and under must be supervised by a parent or guardian who is in the gym.
- Children need to be sitting on the bleachers if their parent/sibling is participating in a recreation center activity.

The Story City Community Recreation Center Management reserves the right to make alterations to the rules at any time without notice. Any changes will be available at the Recreation Center. It is your responsibility to periodically check for any rule changes.